This event marks the bonding session between the seniors and juniors as well as of students with the faculty. It is organized to fill the freshers with positivity as many may feel confused and have fear in the heart when they start this new phase of life.

BATHUKAMMA

Bathukamma is a floral festival celebrated mainly by women of Telangana, usually in the month of September–October during Navratri. This festival is celebrated with students and faculty dressing up in traditional attire, followed by preparing bathukamma, a beautiful flower stack arranged in a unique style in the shape of a temple, which usually consists of seasonal flowers, having medicinal values. Students also prepare rangoli and dance with enthusiasm around the bathukamma singing folk songs. Every colourful student resembles a flower in Bathukamma and their prayers to the mother goddess touch the sky, their dances resemble the dew drops on the petals of Tangedu flowers. It's as though the flowers are dancing around flowers and praising the stories of the legends.
